Basic Search

Search: A Library catalog search is a keyword search across most fields

Narrow search by searching just title, author, subject fields

Sort results: By relevance, author, date, title and popularity

Filter: Results by author, holding library, item type (book, DVD,...), series, subject, and more

Select search result: To view details (holdings data); add record to cart (temporary location that will empty after logout or timeout); add to list (permanent location to save records), or to place hold

View bibliographic record: Click on search result's jacket cover or title to pull up details & holding data (library locations)

Subscribe to search using RSS:  Your RSS Reader will notify you when new titles are added to your search (RSS reader required for this option)

Bibliographic Record

Details: Normal view includes description of item, hyperlinked subject headings, summaries, and Readometer rating if title hits 70% positive critic reviews

Holdings Data: Displays item type, current location (library), call number, status, date due

Book reviews by critics: Are listed if available from <https://idreambooks.com>. Reviews are taken from popular newspapers and book review blogs

Record options: Place hold, print, email, save to your lists (permanent location), add to cart (temporary location)

Share record: On Facebook, LinkedIn & Twitter

TIP: Our System Catalog works best in Firefox but will work in Chrome and Safari. It will not work in IE or Microsoft Edge. If problems occur, try another browser.

Advanced Search

Advanced Searches: Multiple fields at once. Use "phrase" fields to search multiple search terms in one search box. Add additional fields if necessary [+]. Boolean operators help narrow or open searches (AND, OR, NOT)

Limit search by:

Item type: book, audiobook, DVD, magazine, etc...

Shelving Location: library and/or location in library

Date Range

Language

Member Library

Availability of Item

Audience: adult, adolescent, juvenile, etc...

Content: fiction, non-fiction, etc...

Format: regular print, large print, CD audio, DVD, video, etc...

Sort by: By relevance, author, date, title and popularity
